BUSINESS OVERVIEW

This sports video and photography firm was established in 1999. Its primary service involves providing professional-grade videotaping and/or photography services at various sporting events, then selling the tapes and/or photographs to participants at the conclusion of the event. The Company has developed a national reputation within the professional and amateur ice skating communities and considered the preeminent firm of its type by most governing bodies and event organizers.

The Company covers numerous sanctioned national competitions, as well as many regional, sectional and junior national competitions. In addition to its ice competition specialty, the Company also handles videography and photography at horse shows, tennis tournaments, lacrosse games and dance recitals, among other events.

Ownership of this Company requires frequent travel, either by the owner or employees. There are staff members, other than the owners, who handle some of the videography / photography. The owners are willing to provide the buyer with extended training and are open to a post-sale consulting relationship.
